1. The minutes of the last AGM were read and confirmed as a true record.

Matters arising from the Minutes

The rising cost of the 100 was discussed and it was felt that the club had addressed the problem which because of efforts of tea tent etc and a large field showed a profit. J. Futter suggested that a 100 club be formed with a monthly draw to raise funds. It was agreed to bring the matter to a future committee meeting.

2. The Hon Secretary's Report

B. J. Bird explained that the main duties during the year besides redesigning club stationery had been acting as a co-ordinating postman, passing relevant documents to the club officials. He also thanked M. Twigg and D. Birchall for recording the minutes at Committee meetings during his absence. Later during the report he expressed a wish to stand down, as after 3 years he would like not to be committed to all meetings to pursue other hobbies.

Treasurer's Report

- a) J. Pickles had explained that club was in a good financial position and encouraged all members to pay promptly by Direct Debit.
- b) The Auditor had placed Tony in a difficult position in wanting to know the number of Block Anfielders available, Trophy Value based on the scrap silver weight, at this time the problems of insurance for the cups etc was raised as personal house insurance by the winners would not cover their theft.
- c) The topic of a £17 drinks bill which the club had been charged had been paid and it was agreed that at the Tinto individual members would not have room bills.
- d) The 100 was discussed and the fact that it was in profit met general approval.
- e) D. Bassett proposed that the club raise full membership cost to £15 for next year, this was seconded by M. Twigg and agreed by members.
- f) It was also noted that 7 club shirts remained in stock.

Thanks to the Treasurer were proposed by J. Futter.

Election of Officers

President: Michael Twigg: seconded Peter Colligan

A vote of thanks to H. Catling was proposed by C. Edwards. The incoming President then spoke on behalf of the club in appreciation of Harold's presidency. Harold then explained his views about the duties involved and the need for ~~a~~ change being regular not on the death of the incumbent.

Minutes of the Committee meeting at the Sportsman's Arms, Pattenhall, on Saturday Nov. 20th 1993. Commencing 11:40 am.

Present: G. Thompson, T. Pickles, C. Werner, E. Davies, H. Moore, G. Catherall, D. Bird, B. Griffiths, D. Bassett, D. Birchall, G. Fuller, M. Twigg, T. Williams, W. Graham

Apologies: S. Twigg.

Minutes of the AGM: Were read and agreed.

Correspondence: A letter from the hpl. D.C./RTTC contained information re. officers and officials for 1994 and that the club delegate (P. Colligan) should attend the next D.C. meeting to consider and vote on the National RTTC AGM agenda.

A letter of resignation had been received from Alan Gorman, a long standing member, in which he stated that since he had no connections with the club now, there seemed no point in continued membership.

After some discussion Dave Birchall said he would contact Harold Culling, who would phone Alan on the matter.

Treasurer's Report: Funds are as follows-

Current Acct £625.01
High Interest Acct £304.77
Road Record Acct £529.25

Permission was given to transfer £400.00 from the Current Acct to the High Interest Acct.

The ABC '25' had made a profit of £102.00 and it was decided to make a gift to the lady who had done the event typing. Entry fees had amounted to £348.00.

It was agreed to purchase 20 marshals bibs, 20 RTTC + 6 BCF handbooks and a small quantity of entry forms.

S. Lamport, S. Green, M. Maddock, P. Roberts and N. Vernon had not paid subscriptions for over 3 years and were no longer members.

Captain's Weekend: Late Feb./Early March 1994.
The possible venues are Bishops Castle, Barmouth or Hatfield.

Racing Secretary: Club events as follows had been applied for 1994

March	19th	14 ^{mtk}
April	23rd	7	all at 11.30am
May	21st	7
June	25th	10
July	23rd	7
Aug.	20th	7

It was agreed to go ahead with an order for club road racing vests from Alexa, who will make an initial charge of £75 for the setting up of a new design.

AOB: Dave Bassett had had a favourable reply from the Neston Recreation Centre regarding a club night there. No fee would be charged and a night is to be arranged.

It was agreed to hold the 1994 Committee meetings at the Swan, Kinnerton, the Secretary living next door but one to the pub.

An Anfield '100' fund was discussed again, but was met with only limited enthusiasm. An appeal for donations would be made in the Club Circular.

Mike Twigg will investigate non-CTC members of the Anfield to determine whether or not there is a need to affiliate the club to the CTC Group Scheme (third party insurance).

Colin Werner to assist Ben Griffiths with the next ABC '25' with a view to taking over a future promotion.

Concern was expressed by Colin Werner over the possible deterioration of old ABC photographs, now in the possession of Dave Birchall. Dave said the situation is not urgent but he would report back on what can and will be done.

Mike Twigg will pass on to Dave Birchall some old photographs owned by Frank Fischer, recently deceased.

Dave Bassett mentioned the use of a computer for setting time trial fields and this will be explored by those with Data Management Programme knowledge. Club runs and committee meetings arranged and will appear in the next circular.

Meeting Closed 12.50pm

Minutes of the Committee Meeting at the Sportsman's Arms, Tattenhall on Saturday Dec. 17th 1993. Commencing 11:30a

Apostolgies: C. Werner, D. Bassett, G. Thompson

Minutes of the last meeting were read and accepted.

Matters Arising: Club nights had been arranged for Monday evenings at the Neston Recreation Centre.

Mike Twigg has distributed a Questionnaire to members regarding the CTC third party insurance scheme.

It was suggested that Committee meetings might be held at different venues

Concerning the resignation of A. Gorman Harold Catling had declined to handle the matter and had suggested that R. Barker might be more suitable.

Secretary's Report: No Correspondence received.

Treasurer's Report: Not present.

Racing Secretary: Not present.

A.O.B: Details of a new and safer ABC 100 course with same start and finish. were passed around and met with approval. Application for its use to be made to local D.C.

Some discussion took place on the need to revive the club annual dinner, none having taken place since 1979. The social secretary agreed to investigate venues and prices in the Chester area.

A letter had been sent to Barclays Bank in Liverpool to secure the release of some old ABC Minute books.

It was decided to compile an inventory of ABC valuables and other possessions and where they were kept.

Regarding the deterioration of old ABC photographs, Craig Clewly can remedy the problem by a Computer Scanner digitising process.

Meeting closed at 12:10 pm
